Additional information regarding attempted service, etc.:

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)(c) Place of Compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

- (A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or
- (B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person
 - (i) is a party or a party's officer; or
 - (ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

- (A) production of documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and
- (B) inspection of premises at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction—which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees—on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing, or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises—or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

- (i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.
- (ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

- (i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;
- (ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

- (i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

- (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and
- (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

- (i) expressly make the claim; and
- (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt.

The court for the district where compliance is required—and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court—may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

- (g) With respect to a STATEMENT, the person(s) making the statement, any person(s) present at the time the statement was made, the approximate date of such statement, the subject matter of the statement, and, if possible, the exact words used.

II. INSTRUCTIONS

In addition to the requirements set forth in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, which Plaintiff incorporates herein, the following instructions apply to each of the discovery requests set forth below, and are deemed to be incorporated in each individual Request:

1. The Documents covered by these Requests include all Documents in Your possession, custody or control.
2. These discovery requests are continuing in nature and require supplementation or amendment to include information subsequently acquired or as required by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
3. If for any reason You are unable to respond to any request set forth herein, explain in detail Your inability to respond. If for any reason You are unable to respond to a part of any request but able to answer other parts of the request, respond to as much of the request as You can and explain in detail Your inability to respond to the remainder of the request.
4. If You contend that any of the information requested herein is protected or privileged, so state and set forth the protection or privilege claimed, the facts upon which You rely to support the claim of protection or privilege, and the scope of said protection or privilege, but proceed to disclose or produce all requested information for which protection or privilege is not claimed. With respect to each requested Document that is being withheld, You are hereby requested to furnish a privilege log identifying the basis for the claim of privilege or protection and a description of the Document, including:
 - (a) the title of the Document and the nature and subject matter of its contents;
 - (b) the date the Document was prepared or any date appearing on the Document;
 - (c) the number of the Document's pages, attachments and appendices; the names of the persons who authored or prepared the Document, and an identification by employment and title of each such person, and if the person is an attorney, a statement so saying;
 - (d) the names of each person to whom the Document, or a copy thereof, was sent, shown or made accessible, or to whom it was explained, together with an identification of each such person and entity with which they are employed or associated, and if the person is an attorney, a statement so saying;

- (e) the number of each paragraph of these Document Requests to which the Document relates;
 - (f) the portion(s) of the Document as to which privilege is claimed; and
 - (g) the type of privilege asserted.
5. Counsel for Plaintiff is willing to discuss with You or Your counsel any questions regarding perceived ambiguities in, or claims regarding the burdens involved in or compliance with the discovery requested herein in an effort to resolve any such issues without the necessity of Court intervention. If You cannot clarify any perceived ambiguities by reference to the Definitions, contact counsel for Plaintiff for clarification.
 6. You shall produce all documents in the manner in which they are maintained in the usual course of Your business and/or You shall organize and label the documents to correspond with the categories in these Requests. A Request shall be deemed to include a request for any and all file folders within which the document was contained, transmittal sheets, cover letters, exhibits, enclosures, or attachments to the document in addition to the document itself.
 7. Documents shall be produced in such fashion as to identify the file, folder, department, branch or office in which they were located and, where applicable, the natural person in whose possession it was found and the business address of each document's custodian(s).
 8. Documents attached to each other should not be separated. If any portion of any document is responsive to the document Requests, then the entire document must be produced.
 9. Electronically Stored Information should be produced in the following format: As single-page TIFF images, at 300 dots-per-inch, with an iPRO LFP image load file and a Concordance delimited dataload file (*.DAT) with the following fields: BEGNO, ENDNO, BEGATTACH, ENDATTACH, PAGES, VOLUME, RECORDTYPE, SENTDATE, SENTONETIME, CREATEDATE, CREATETIME, LASTMODDATE, LASTMODTIME, RECEIVEDDATE, RECEIVEDTIME, PARENTFOLDER, AUTHOR, TO, CC, BCC, SUBJECT/TITLE (fields combined), ORIGSOURCE, CUSTODIAN, NATIVEPATH, ATTACHCOUNT, FILEEXT, FILENAME, FILETYPE, FILESIZE, APPLICATION, MD5HASH, and FULLTEXT. All spreadsheets responsive to these Requests that are maintained in the usual course of business in electronic format shall be produced in their native format (along with the TIFF images, linked using NATIVEPATH field).
 10. Under no circumstances should Electronically Stored Information be converted from the form in which it is ordinarily maintained to a different form that makes it more difficult or burdensome to use. Electronically Stored Information should not be produced in a form that removes or significantly degrades the ability to search the Electronically Stored Information by electronic means where the Electronically Stored Information is ordinarily maintained in a way that makes it searchable by electronic means. Databases or underlying data should not be produced without first discussing production format issues with the Plaintiff's counsel. If You decline to search or produce Electronically Stored Information on the ground that such Electronically Stored Information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost, identify such information by category or sources and provide detailed information concerning the burden or cost You claim is associated with the search or production of such Electronically Stored Information.

11. If You have reason to believe there are e-mails created that are responsive to these Requests that have not been retained, state the name and address of the e-mail provider (e.g., MSN, Yahoo!, Thunderbird, Gmail, Bloomberg, AOL, etc.) or program used by You and what efforts You have made to retrieve the requested information.
12. In the event that any document responsive to any Request was, but is no longer, in Your possession, custody or control, or has been lost, destroyed, discarded or otherwise disposed of, You shall provide sufficient information to identify the document as completely as possible and state, in writing, the details and circumstances surrounding the disposal of the document.
